

WEEDS BE GONE!

New tool good for back

Getting rid of weeds the old-fashioned way — by hand — is a difficult job that takes its toll on your knees and back. Now there's an easy, effective way to yank weeds while standing up. The Rocket Weeder from Yard Butler tools is a long-handled tool with a unique gripping action that lets you pull out the toughest weeds — roots and all — without damaging the lawn. The all-steel weeder grabs onto the weed and the long handle lets you gently rock it out of the ground without the roots breaking off. The ejector button deposits the weed where you want it. Rocket Weeder ($27) comes with a lifetime guarantee. Find it at home and garden centers, or order it directly by visiting YardButlerStore.com.

Rocket Weeder
